

CHOCOLATE LOVERS REJOICE

APRIL 23, 2017

Any chocolate lover will love these fully loaded chocolate dishes or some mild takes on chocolate. Be sure to stop any of these establishments and try these chocolatey creations!

It may be known as the best happy hour spot at the beach, but Tavern also has the best dessert at the beach. The Half Baked dessert is a dynamic duo of brown butter chocolate chip stout cookie and a gooey fudge brownie baked in a skillet capped with house-made vodka vanilla ice cream and chocolate sauce. You will keep coming back to Tavern for this delicious dessert.

In the beating heart of the Gaslamp Quarter barleymash is making desserts as sweet as their location. The Mash Up is a hot out of the oven chocolate chip cookie and dark chocolate brownie mashed side by side with bourbon vanilla-bean ice cream and salted caramel sauce. This dessert will have you asking for seconds! Give into those sweet tooth cravings and order this treat.

Backyard Kitchen & Tap has a camp fire favorite with extra chocolate. The BYD S'mores with a graham cracker crust filled with vanilla ice cream, chocolate sauce, caramel and crowned with perfectly toasted house made marshmallows. This family friendly eatery will be a big hit with the kids and all chocolate lovers! Make sure to leave room for dessert!

The New Yorker Pizzeria and Bar in the Gaslamp Quarter has the most decadent Chocolate Lava Cake in downtown San Diego. After a slice of pizza order the chocolate lava cake filled with creamy, hot chocolate and topped with a scoop of ice cream. There's no better way to end your meal at The New Yorker.
